SIR THOMAS HOPES TO WIN AMERICA'S CUP WITH LATEST OF SHAMROCKS

Most Persistent of Challengers, Who Has Spent Fortune on Three Yachts, Which Lost to Speedier American Boats-Is Due Here for Fourth Attempt-Eleven Years Have Passed Since Popular Englishman Saw His Shamrock III. Beaten by the Defender Reliance in Three Races.

By Robert Edgren.

S IR THOMAS LIPTON, England's most enthusiastic yachtsman, arrived here to-day to race for the America's Cup. That Sir Thomas is st persistent contender can be guessed by the name of his challenging yacht, Shamrock IV. The other Shamrocks, one after another, have sailed the Atlantic to this side, under the race conditions that require the challenger for the cup to cross the ocean under its own sail and without being towed, and have failed to beat the American defenders. Shamrock IV. started across in 1914, the N. Y. Y. C. having accepted Sir Phomas's challenge sent through the Royal Ulster Yacht Club. The race was to have been held in September, but the great war broke out while chamrock IV. was on the ocean. She came by way of the Azores, and ran sto Bermuda, where the war news reached her. To avoid capture or denotion by some German commerce destroyer she was towed the rest of s way by a cruiser. Technically, this would bar Shamrock IV. from ing, but as a matter of sportsmanship the New York Yacht Club has
